UNIFORM SOUGHT FOR DRY AGENT

The Association Against the Prohibition Amendment wants prohibition agents put into uniform. It will present a motion picture from confining them with hold-up men, the association says.

For this season, the organization has started a campaign for the new dry legislation. This should apply especially to dry agents patrolling highways, so that motorists may know when to stop and when to ignore such a challenge by a stranger in civilian clothes.

DODGE BROTHERS REDUCE PRICES ON SPECIAL TYPE CARS

In view of the upward trend in automobile prices, considerable surprise was occasioned by Dodge Brothers recent announcement of a reduction in prices of their special type cars.

Dodge Brothers were able to do the unexpected, according to the announcement, on account of the increased volume of their purchases of special equipment for their special type cars.

Dodge Brothers special types consist of the standard cars equipped with accessories which produce the utmost in comfort and convenience and appearance of the car. Among these are steel disc wheels, five-spoke wheels, nickel-trimmed radiator, nickel plated bumpers, automatic windshield wiper, rear view mirror, scuff plates, cowl lights and motor-meter with lock. A special body stripe is also provided.

Manufacturing and buying these accessories in quantity, Dodge Brothers are naturally able to install them at prices considerably below what the owner would have to pay at retail. The public was quick to sense this and the demand for the special type cars grew steadily from the moment they were made available. Their convenience and appearance have elicited the greatest admiration everywhere and those who know the volume that has been attained can readily understand how Dodge Brothers were able to make a reduction when others were announcing advances.

Four Dodge Brothers cars are affected by the reduction—the special Touring Car, Roadster, special "A" Sedan, special "B" Sedan, special Business Coupe and special 4-Passenger Coupe. The "E" Sedan and the Business Coupe have also been added to the line of special types.

As the reduction was made possible by economies effected in the purchase of equipment used exclusively on the special type cars the standard types are in no way affected, according to Gardner Motor Co., local dealers. The prices of all standard types remain unchanged.

Spent $300,000 In 3 Months

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 27.—He spent $300,000 in three months. He found that in 12 brief weeks he could crash the gates of society and be dining with princes and princesses. Then, his fortune dissipated, Charles Grant Myers 2nd, disappeared. Now he has been found living here in seclusion.

How did he spend it? Very simply. If you note these items: $22,000 for a specially built automobile; $18,000 for a country car; $40,000 for a fur coat and $36,000 for two precious stones. He entertained a millionaire party at the Saratoga races and gave a dinner in honor of the Prince and Princess Christian of Hesse. He set himself up in one of the most expensive hotel suites.

Here, in the modest home of his sister, he waits the coming of a second fortune. He will have an income of more than $50,000 a year from his grandmother's estate.

How does he intend to spend this? "More quietly," he says with a smile. "Not that I regret a dime of the money I spent. It was worth it. I wanted to find out about society and I did. I reached the very social peak. It was money well invested in experience. But I'm going to try to help other people get a chance, too."

Dealers Lose Less In Used Car Sales

By NEA Service

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 27.—The automobile owner who looks for a bargain on his "trade-in," ahead of a good new car, is gradually going off the scene.

According to statistics compiled by the National Automobile Dealers' Association, whose headquarters are here, losses to dealers due to such bargaining have been diminishing considerably. The production points to more equitable trades for used cars, with the accompanying search on the part of owners for good new cars rather than good bargains on their old autos.

During 1922 estimated losses to auto dealers through the used car bargaining methods then extant amounted to $123,000,000. More than a million such cars were handled then.

Yet in the first six months of this year, when more than twice this number of used cars was bought and resold, the total losses amounted to less than $12,500,000.

Officials of the N. A. D. A. attribute this to safer bargaining methods among dealers and to education of auto owners in the proper purchase of new autos regardless of the price they can get for the old.

As the years roll by, trade-ins have become more and more pronounced. Sixty-five per cent. of the auto dealers report that between half and all of their new car sales are based on trade-ins. Some even report that all of their new car sales to complete the transaction.

At the same time the average selling price of used cars has fallen off. It was $312 for the last three months in 1923. It was $252.17 for the first half of this year.

FEDERAL ROAD AID

The United States plans to spend a sum equal to $4.70 for each motor vehicle in the country on construction and maintenance of "federal aid" roads during the year ending June 30, 1925. This is 15 cents less per vehicle than the amount spent the last fiscal year. Yet the total figure of $72,789,375 for the coming year is the highest ever expended.

Comfort and Fuel Biggest Problems

BY ISHAEL KLEIN

NEA Service Writer

Riding comfort and economy in the use of fuel are the main subjects for development by auto engineers of the country, according to a review of the research activities under direction of the Society of Automobile Engineers.

Improvement in the riding qualities of automobiles has long attracted the interest of auto engineers. Out of this topic has come numerous devices and ideas for greater comfort to the auto passengers. In the search for improved methods along this line, they have gone to steamship and railway companies for lessons from their experiences in improving the comfort of their passengers.

In the fuel research work, the society has had the co-operation of the American Petroleum Institute, the Bureau of Standards and the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce. It has been their dominant idea to look forward into the future outcome of fuel use.

Diluted Oil.

Dilution of crankcase oil has been part of this fuel research problem, for it has been established that increased crankcase dilution has resulted in lower fuel volatility, greater difficulty in starting and considerable waste in burning.

The water cooling system has also presented itself as part of the fuel problem, since it has been found that the temperature of the water jacket has a marked influence on the rate of crankcase dilution. Indirectly it means greater waste, not only in fuel but in the wear and tear of the engine parts.

Roads Tested.

Besides these problems, the engineers have been studying various phases of highway construction and use especially in relation to wear and tear by heavy trucks. The Bureau of Public Roads and the Rubber Association of America have been co-operating with the society in this work, and tests have been conducted by these organizations at Arlington, Va.

Other projects undergoing research by the society engineers include truck-transportation costs, tire design and air contamination by automobile exhausts. The last two subjects, once mastered, promise increasing comfort and relief to automobile riders and others.

San Francisco cut its motor fatalities 14 per cent. in the first seven months of 1924.

Switzerland's compulsory liability insurance on motor cars has been in operation two years.

Approximately fifty country banks in the northwest are expected to reopen as a result of the improved agricultural situation. Bank clearings for the district are above $200,000,000 a gain of about 25 per cent. over 1923. A jump of $28,000,000 in St. Paul bank clearings last week is attributed in part to the business attendant on the American Legion convention, but much of the gain resulted from trade origi-

PRESIDENT PLEASED WITH NOMINATION OF ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—President Coolidge considers the selection of Theodore Roosevelt as the Republican candidate for governor of New York a very strong nomination. He told friends today after Mr. Roosevelt had called twice at the White House to present his resignation as assistant secretary of the navy, and again to pose for pictures with the president.

Mr. Roosevelt in a statement issued after visiting the president, declared New York State would give Mr. Coolidge an "unparalleled majority" in the election this fall and the Republican State ticket would go through by a similar majority.

A Convenience Not a Luxury

OUR cab service is not a luxury. With our low rates of fare, our service is now regarded by nearly everyone as a necessity—a convenience that makes a shopping trip a pleasure; adds enjoyment to the social call, assures prompt arrival for the business engagement; in fact, places at the disposal of the public safe, prompt, economical transportation.

With our capable drivers ever striving to serve you quickly and courteously; with our comfortable cabs—clean not only on the exterior, but in the interior as well—our cab service is ever becoming more and more popular with the people of this city. That is one reason why we are adding new equipment. We want to merit the confidence that the people have placed in us. We want to serve every man, woman and child to the very best of our ability.

And with every man in charge of our cabs working wholeheartedly with us in our endeavor to constantly better our service, we have every reason to believe that no where in the United States will you find better cab service than we are offering the people of this city.

Should you, however, ever have any cause for complaint, you will be conferring a favor upon us by bringing it promptly to our attention.

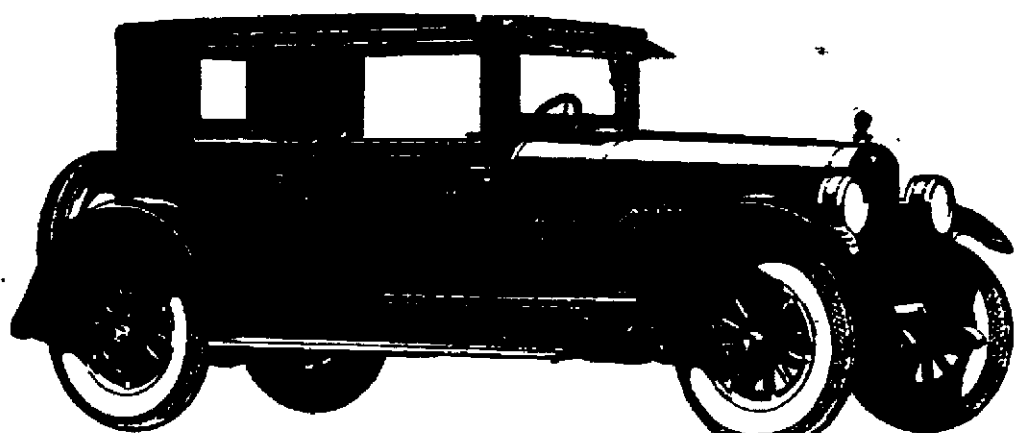

EVER AT YOUR SERVICE.

"Interesting Sketches in Oil"

"THE STORY OF OIL," the newspaper series which The Red C Oil Company published last season, telling unique uses and developments of Oil down through the centuries, was an entirely new and different feature in Oil advertising. We received countless letters from our satisfied consumers telling us how they enjoyed "The Story of Oil," and asking that we continue the series this year. Consequently, we have collected a wealth of new material; we have prepared an even greater number of stories about the early days of the Oil development during the last century. You will find the series instructive, often amusing, and abounding in human interest. We are going to call this sequel "Interesting Sketches in Oil." Watch for Number One, "Oil from Coal—Coal Oil," in next week's paper.

Meanwhile, keep in mind the wonderful Kerosene in honor of which "The Story of Oil" and "Interesting Sketches in Oil" have been written. Remember The Red C Oil and The White C Oil, same except in color—representing all that is truly fine in high gravity Kerosene.

Weekly Sunday School Lesson

A STORY THAT WE SHOULD TELL TO OTHERS

The International Uniform Sunday School Lesson for Sunday, Sept. 29: Review of the Quarter's Lessons on the Opening Period of Christ's Ministry.

By WM. E. GILROY, D. D.
Editor-in-Chief of The Congregationalist.

Where should we go for the best story of the life of Jesus? Nowhere but to the New Testament itself. Here, in what we call the "Gospels," is at once the simplest, most authoritative, and most beautiful story of all. There may be helps in the reading of that story. Also the Gospel records do not give us the complete story of Jesus, for that story will never be completed until the love and power of the Great Redeemer have fulfilled their purpose in earth and heaven.

We eminent English preacher has called the life of Jesus "the incomplete biography," and every story of the divine influence as the life of Jesus is made manifest in the hearts of men, and in what they accomplish through the living Christ, is a chapter in that incomplete, and continuing, biography.

That is a fine thought. For none the less we begin the earthly life of Jesus in the New Testament, and it is with the simple story in the Gospels that we shall end.

So these lessons of the quarter begin for us the most wonderful of all biographies. To know Jesus is the most important thing in the world, and there is no better way of knowing Jesus than to go about with Him as he goes about doing good, and to listen to His teachings as they fall from His lips.

We shall not pay so much attention then to what people say about Him, for we shall know Him for ourselves.

Nobody can read the marvelous story of the Gospels day after day without having his life made nobler, and without feeling that all of life itself has been made richer for the coming of the Babe of Bethlehem.

How beautifully the stories of the lessons of the past quarter fit into all the experiences of life! Birth, poverty, trial and temptation, have all been sanctified in human experience through the story of Jesus of Nazareth.

Here, too, we have the story of the first disciples. It tells us how we to many become disciples, by just putting Jesus first in our lives—for that is really what it means to "leave all and follow Him."

To some who put Jesus first He gave the privilege of actually going about with Him, but others He told to go back home and live among their neighbors and friends the new life that they had found.

Often that is harder to do than to go on a pilgrimage or a mission. Here in these lessons is the story of those who succeeded and of those who failed. Nicodemus, the learned and liberal-minded unconvinced after this night's visit to Jesus, for we hear no more about him for almost two years.

But the Samaritan woman, with an evil reputation and in some respects a bad character, apparently at once believed, and she went off and brought out the men of the city who told Jesus that they believed, not because of what the woman had said but because they had seen and heard Him for themselves.

That is a fine teaching of these lessons—they tell how nobody can really find Jesus of Nazareth and know Him as He is without wanting to go out and tell about Him to others.

This is what we need more than anything else today—to become so impressed with this Gospel story that we shall simply be compelled to go and tell it to others. If we have not felt this as we have studied the quarter's lessons, their deepest meaning has been missed.

The power behind the piston

OIL is rapidly supplanting coal as the nation's source of energy. It is the power behind the piston in the 300,000,000 horse power used by the automobiles of this country. It drives electric light plants on the farm and in the city. Our biggest battleships and liners are now oil burners.

The cry is for oil and yet more oil. New fields must be found, new wells drilled, new refineries built and old ones extended. There can be no let up in new construction, for the industries of the country depend on oil products in one or other of their many forms. The oil industry today involves an investment of over eight billion dollars and calls for more than $500,000,000 in new capital every year.

The Standard Oil Company (New Jersey) distributes gasoline, oil and greases to thousands of dealers. In its efforts to supply complete service to the motorists of these states it goes further. Wherever you go you will find "Standard" pumps located for your convenience. At cross roads you will find "Standard" road markers. Many dangerous crossings are marked with "Standard" danger signs. Finally, "Standard" advertising of motor tours draws your attention to places well worth visiting.

LARGE HAWK SHOT AT WITT FOLLOWING ATTACK ON CHICKENS

Kinnie Echols a colored boy who is employed by C. J. Reynolds at Witt yesterday afternoon shot and killed a blue-winged leather-backed hawk with a wingspread of eight feet after it had killed seven chickens of partridge size. The boy hearing a commotion in a barn ran to the spot and arrived in time to see the barnyard rooster somewhat bedraggled and spent disputing with his more powerful adversary further inside on the brood. The mother hen was also putting up a stern fight for the youngsters.

Seeing the boy approach, the hawk suddenly wheeled and flew out of the door landing in a Ford touring car backed into a shed where it sought protection. Echols got his gun called in the bird dogs and as the hawk flew from them the youth shot down the bird of prey. Examination of the chickens revealed that they had been sucked dry of blood by the hawk.

ANNUAL RALLY DAY AT FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church the members of the Sunday school will have a special program during the Sunday school hour. It is the annual Rally Day of the Sunday school. It is also to be observed as Promotion Day, and the classes of the various departments who are to be promoted will receive certificates. A large attendance is expected. The special offering will be made for Sunday school extension.

THIS WEEK LITTLE CHESTER HAS SPENT WITH HIS UNCLE BIM SEEMS LIKE A TRIP TO FAIRYLAND. EVERYTHING THAT ANY LITTLE BOY COULD WISH FOR IS AT HIS COMMAND - UNCLE BIM'S ESTATE IS SO LARGE THAT IT TAKES TWO DAYS TO CROSS IT - HOW WOULD YOU LIKE TO LIVE IN A GREAT BIG WONDERFUL CASTLE WITH A FRONT YARD AS BIG AS THE STATE OF DELAWARE AND A BACK YARD LARGER THAN NEBRASKA?

I WROTE TO MY PAPA AND MAMA AND TOLD THEM ABOUT ALL THE FUN I WAS HAVING ON MY VISIT TO YOU -

I WANT YOU TO BE THE HAPPIEST LITTLE BOY IN THE WHOLE WORLD - A SMILE ON YOUR FACE MEANS MORE TO ME THAN A MILLION DOLLARS -

EVERY HORSE YOU SEE BELONGS TO YOU - PICK OUT ANY ONE YOU LIKE AT ANY TIME -

I'LL RIDE A DIFFERENT ONE EVERY DAY AND I'LL LOVE EVERY ONE OF THEM - I'LL BRING THEM APPLES AND LUMPS OF SUGAR AND EVERYTHING -

I'M GLAD TO KNOW YOU LOVE ANIMALS - ANY BOY WHO LOVES DOGS AND HORSES AND NEVER IS CRUEL TO THEM IS SURE TO GROW UP TO BE A REAL MAN -

I DON'T LIKE SNAKES BECAUSE IF YOU AREN'T LOOKING THEY JUMP OUT AND BITE YOU IN THE LEG AND THEN YOU DIE - BUT I LIKE EVERY OTHER KIND OF THING THERE IS -

THERE IS THE LARGEST BUNCH OF SHEEP IN AUSTRALIA - THEY ARE CARRYING AROUND ENOUGH WOOL TO MAKE A WARM SUIT AND OVERCOAT FOR EVERY LITTLE BOY IN THE WIDE WORLD -

GEE, THEY'RE WHITE AND WOOLY LOOKING - IT'S JUST LIKE WATCHING A BIG WHITE SNOW-STORM -

NO, CHESTER, I COULDN'T TELL YOU HOW MANY CHICKENS, DUCKS, GEESSE AND TURKEYS I HAVE ON THE ESTATE BUT THERE ARE ENOUGH TO FURNISH YOU WITH ALL THE FRESH EGGS AND NICE DINNERS YOU CAN EAT -

I'LL BET WHEN ALL THE ROOSTERS START TO CROW IN THE MORNING IT SOUNDS LOUDER THAN ANYTHING -

OH, LOOK AT ALL THE SWELL BOATS -

THEY ARE ALL YOURS, CHESTER - THAT LITTLE SPEED BOAT WITH YOUR NAME ON IT CAN GO FIFTY MILES AN HOUR -

I HAD IT MADE BY A HICKAPOO INDIAN CHIEF AND SHIPPED OVER TO AUSTRALIA FOR YOU TO PADDLE AROUND THE LAKE WITH - YOU MUST BE VERY CAREFUL TILL YOU LEARN JUST HOW TO MANAGE IT -

OH, BOY - THIS IS A SWELL CANOE -

THIS TRAIL LEADS TO THE MOUNTAINS WHERE THE GOLD AND SILVER MINES ARE - WHEN WE REACH THE MINE I WILL SEE THAT YOU FIND A NICE BIG NUGGET OF PURE GOLD -

WHEN YOU SEE THE WONDERFUL VIEW FROM THE PEAK OF THIS MOUNTAIN YOU WILL FEEL REPAYED FOR THE HARD CLIMB -

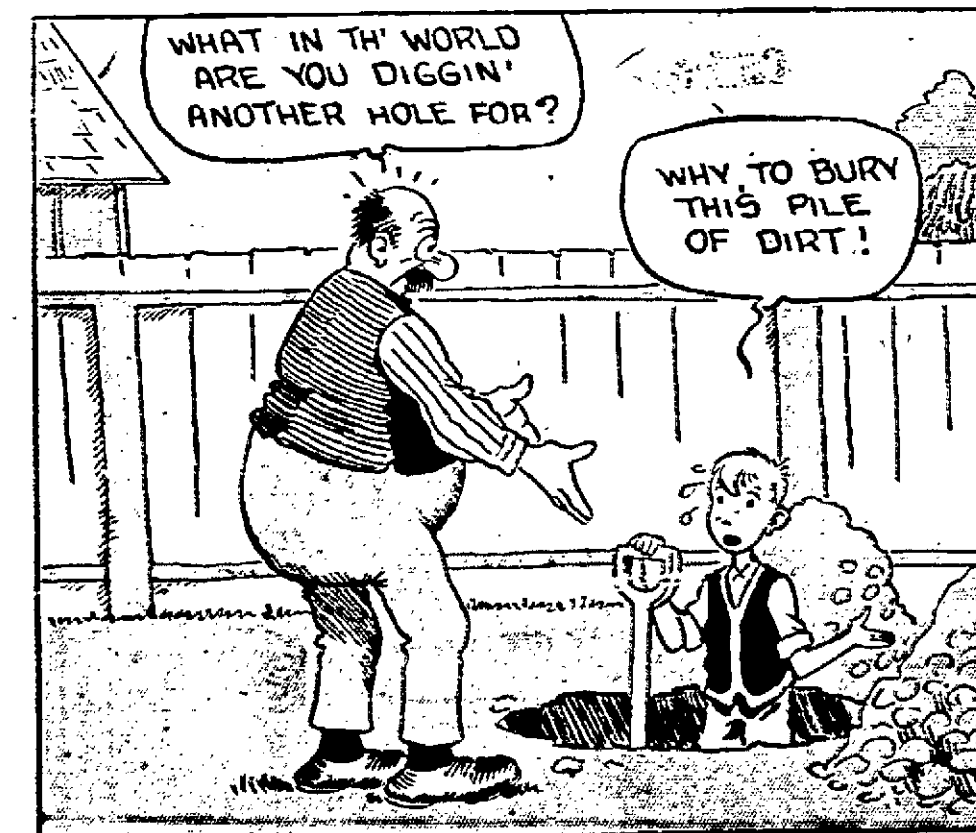

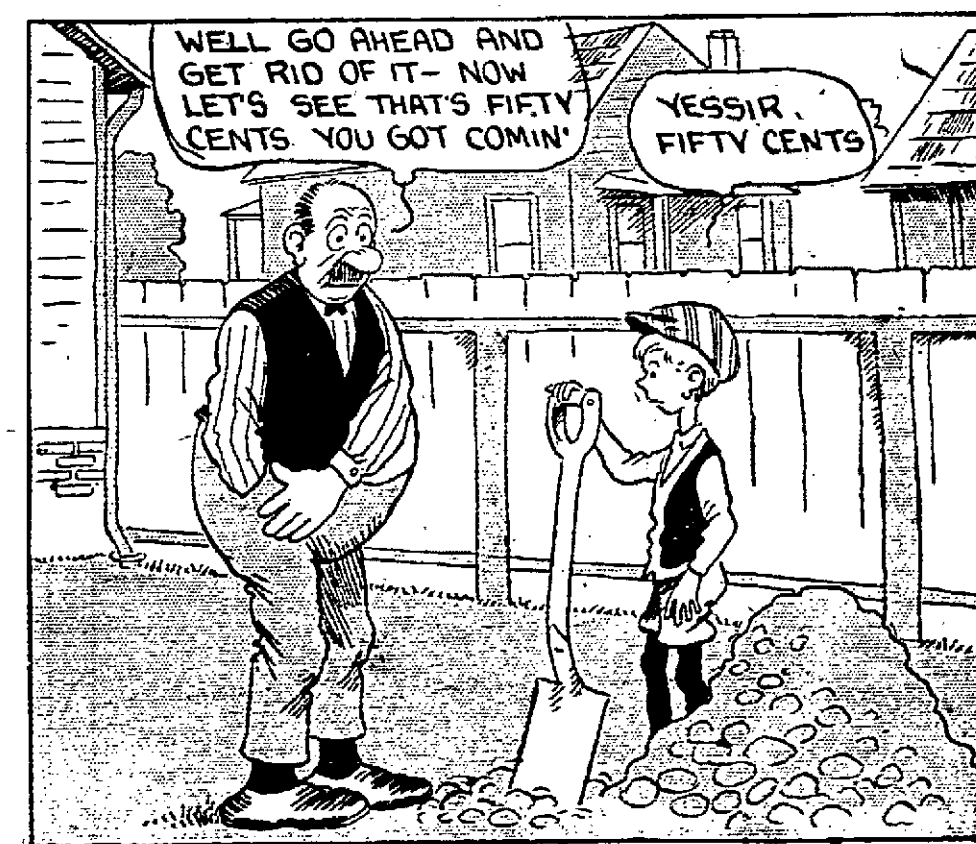

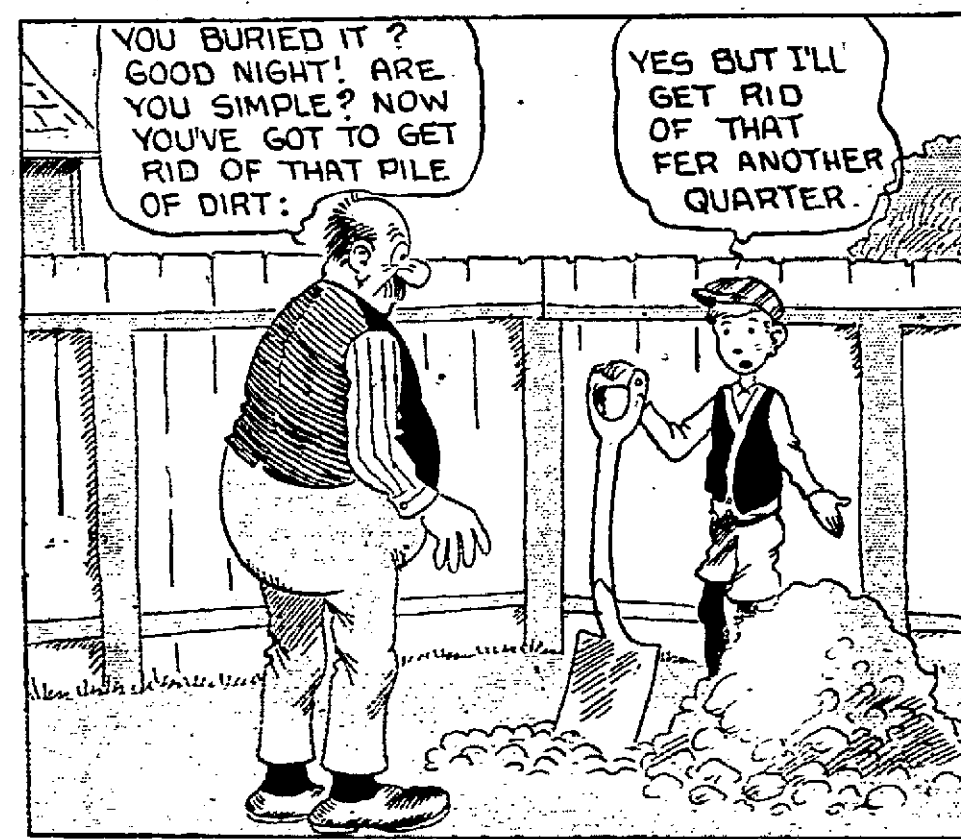

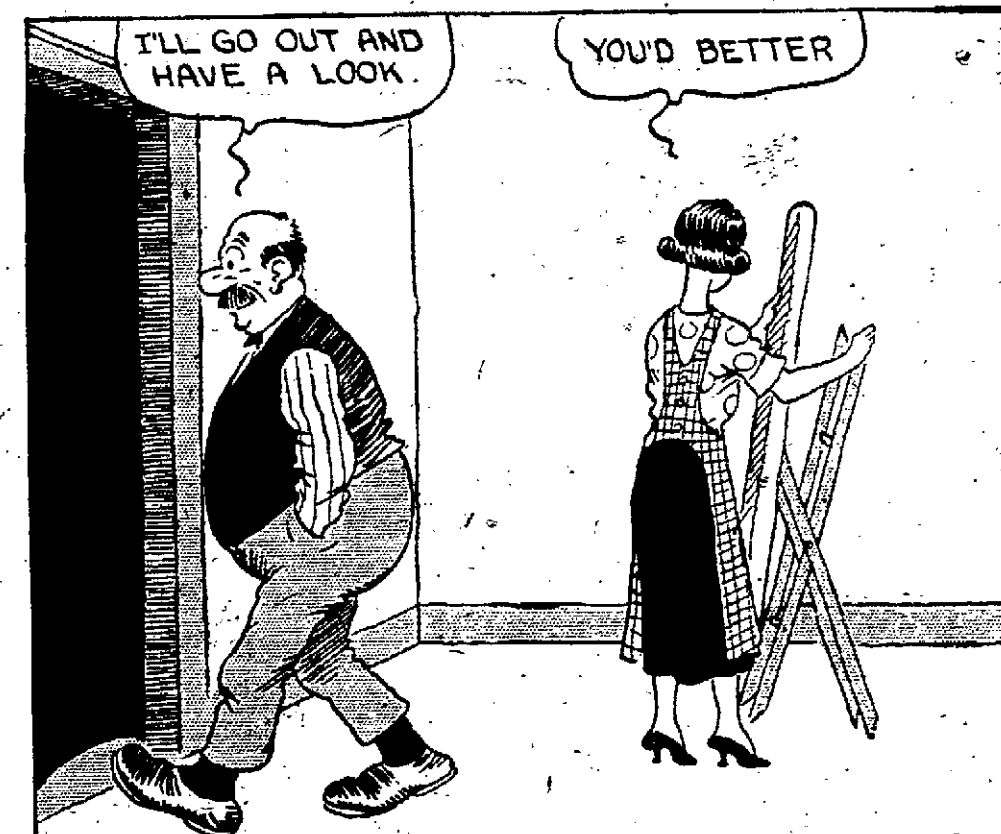

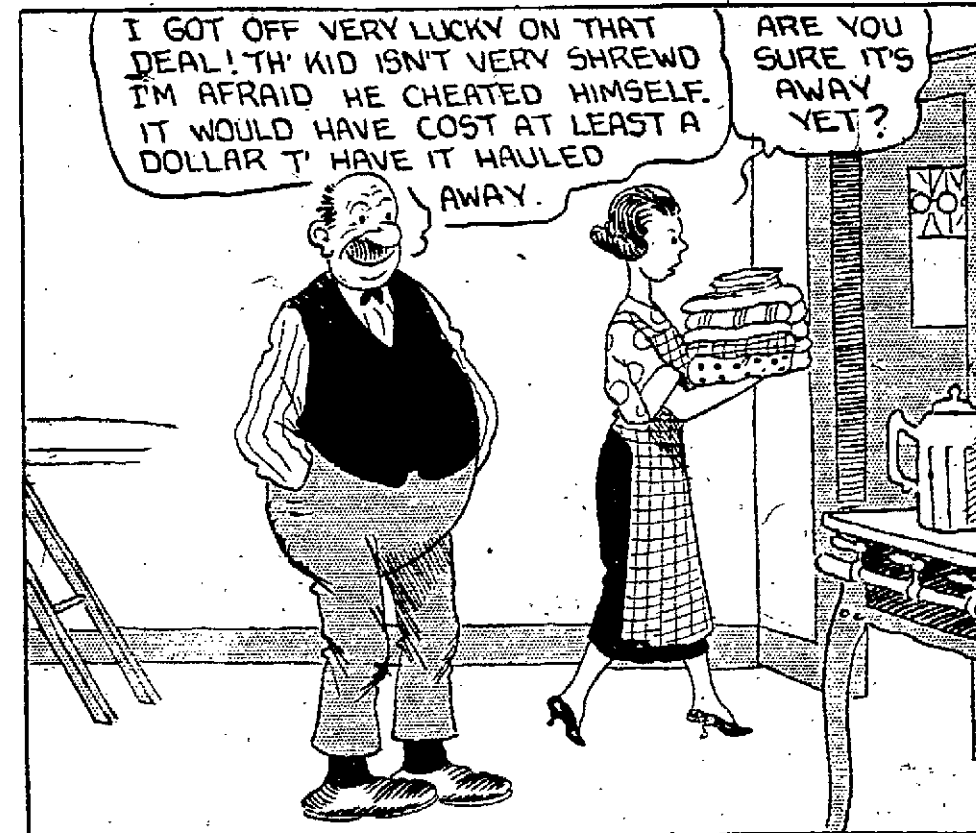

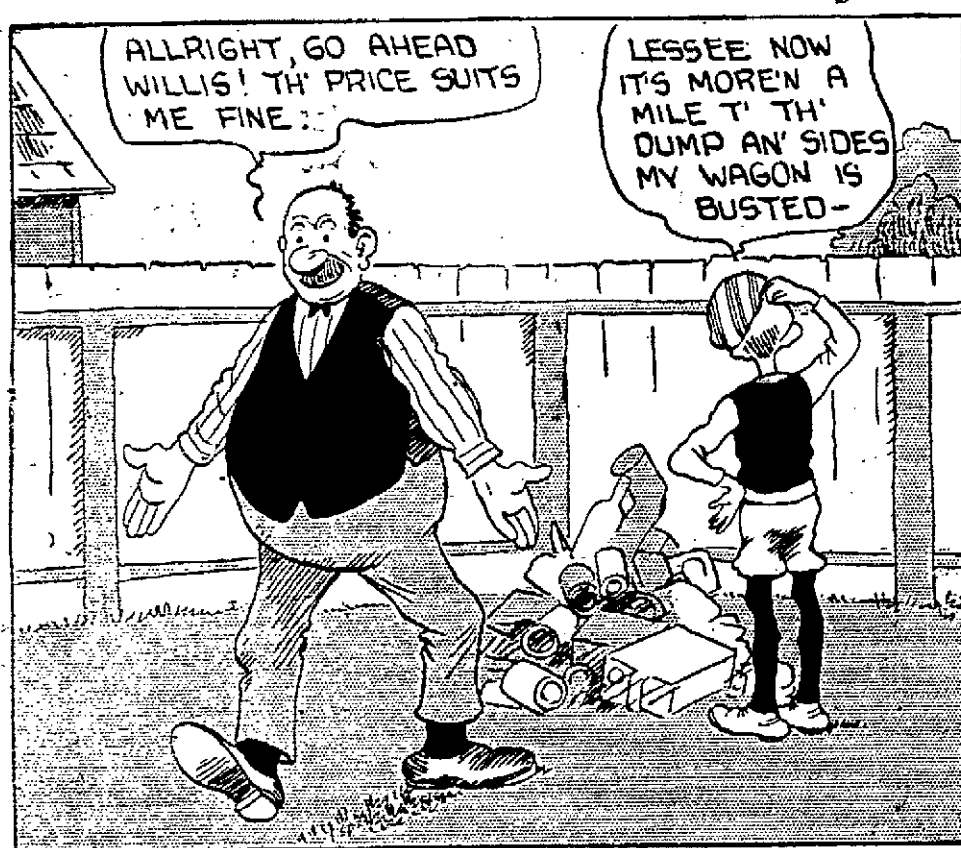

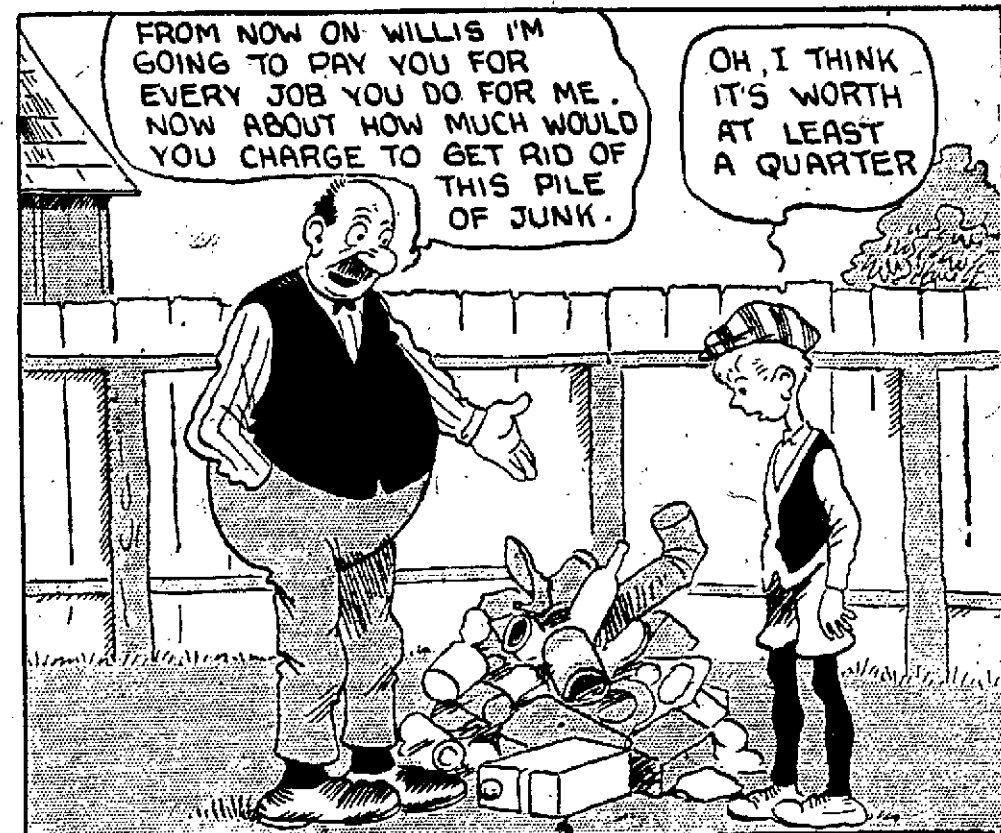

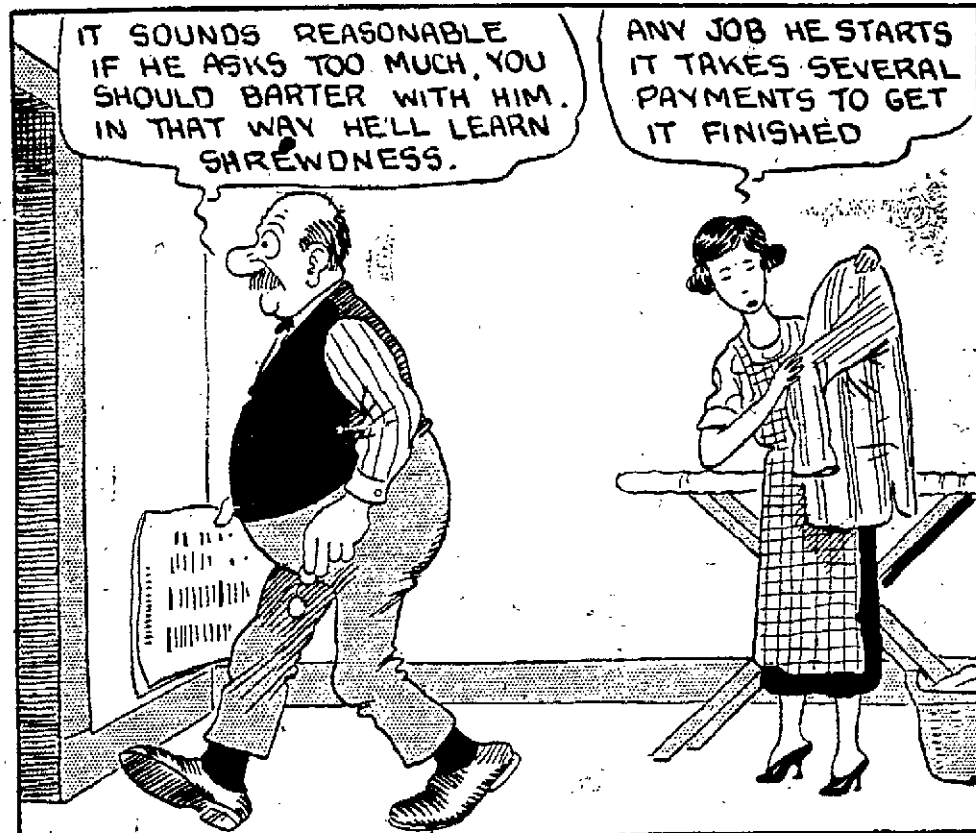

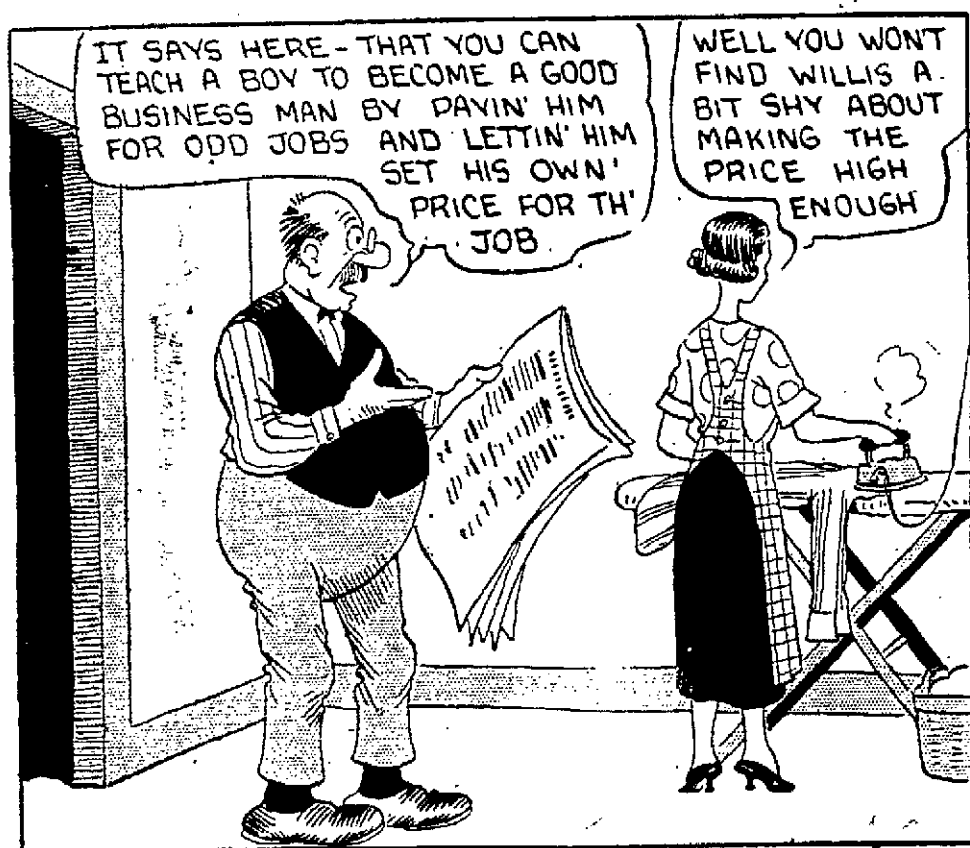

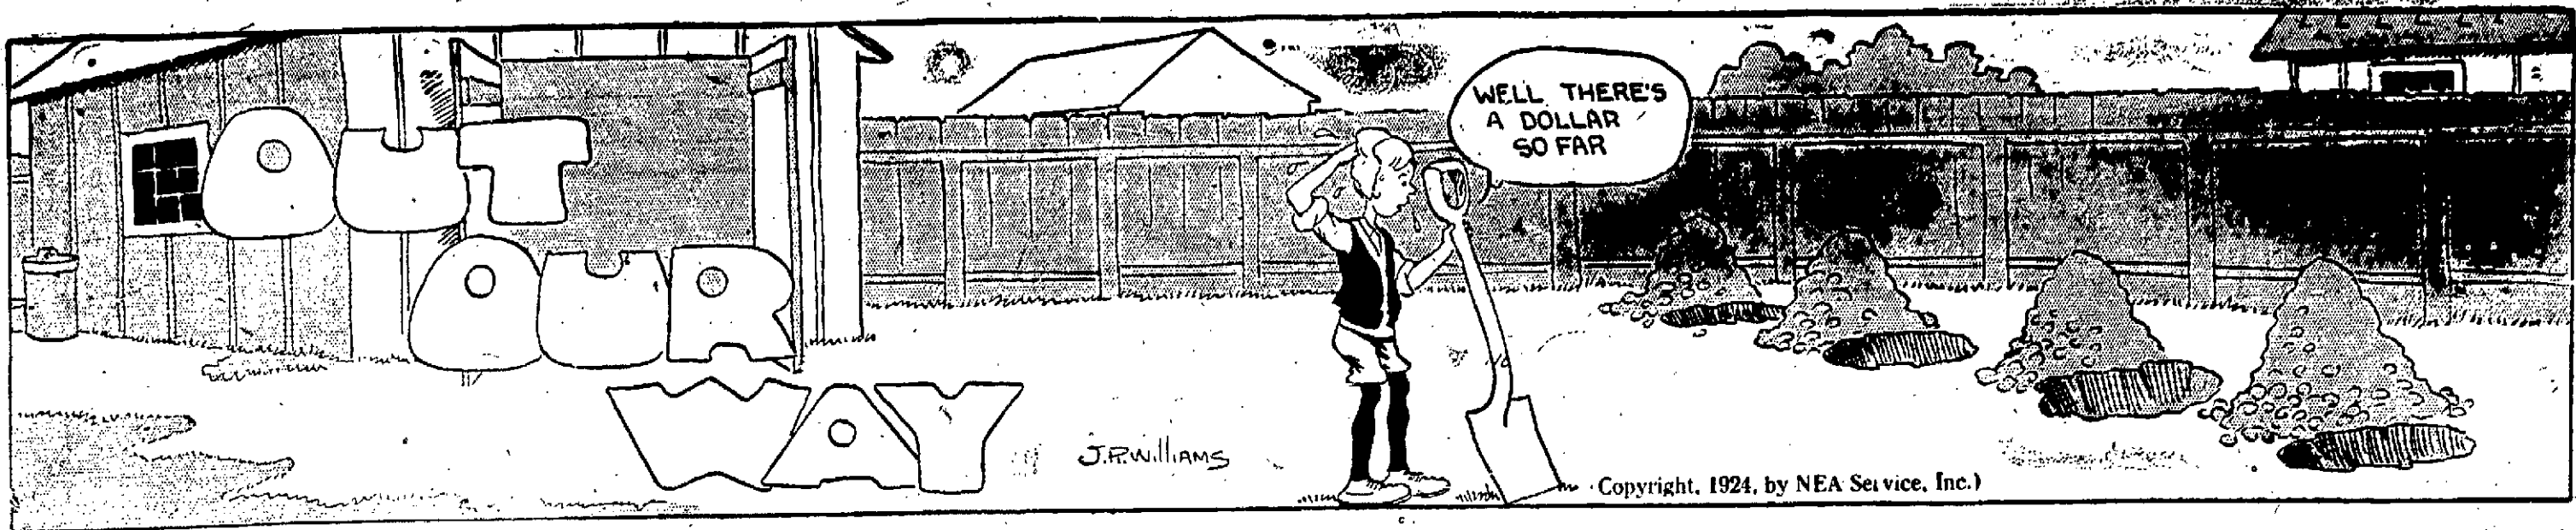

I LIKE TO CLIMB MOUNTAINS - IT'S LOTS OF FUN -

NOW, CHESTER, YOU ARE LOOKING AT OUR BACK YARD - AS FAR AS YOU CAN SEE IN EVERY DIRECTION THE LAND IS OWNED BY ME - SOME DAY YOU SHALL BE MASTER OF IT ALL -

THIS IS BIGGER THAN ALL THE PARKS IN THE WORLD -

OH GOLLY - I'M HAVING SO MUCH FUN IN AUSTRALIA! I DON'T KNOW WHAT TO DO - I WISH I COULD BRING EVERY LITTLE BOY AND GIRL IN THE WORLD OUT HERE AND LET THEM RIDE ON MY PONIES AND SAIL MY BOATS - AND THEN I'LL BET THERE WOULDN'T BE ONE UNHAPPY KID ANYWHERE - AND I'D BE HAPPY BECAUSE THEY WERE HAPPY - OH BOY - I WISH I COULD -

Senators Drop Full Game By Losing While Yanks Win

Schalk Picks American

Yanks Are Showing Their Best Form of the Season in Home Stretch

By RAY SCHALK
Famous Catcher, Chicago White Sox

THE New York Americans of September are a better ball club than at any other time this year. The Yankees, always a good money ball club are responding to the crisis, doing their best work in the pinch. At that time the pitchers were performing poorly. The club seemed to take on the spirit of the pitchers.

It appeared as if the Yankees as a club figured it was impossible to win a fourth pennant with such inconsistent work on the part of the pitching staff. It really looked as if they were content to finish inside the money.

Coming into the home stretch neck-and-neck for pennant honors, with a great chance to go over for the fourth time, put new life into the Yankees.

The lure of the dollar, coupled with the fact that the Yanks have always been good money players, put the winning spirit into the club. The Yanks of September are showing more fight than at any time this year.

The pitching staff has absorbed the spirit of the rest of the team. For weeks Pennock was the only dependable twirler. During the closing stages of the race the entire staff, Joe Bush in particular, has come to life with a vengeance.

Two unusual happenings helped the Yanks in their fight down the stretch. One was the ability of Walter Beall, a recruit twirler, to show big league stuff.

Beall performed sensationally in his first three starts. He is credited with winning two games, and, although the other contest resulted in a 4 to 3 victory for New York, Beall pitched seven innings, the victory going to another member of the staff, Shawkey.

George Hildebrand, American League umpire, also unwittingly helped the pitching staff of the Yankees. Because he persisted in disallowing a ball, Hildebrand put Shawkey out of a game, and with it went a 10-day suspension. That rest seems to have given Shawkey a new lease on life. He is as fast as ever and sure to be helpful as the teams go under the wire.

No one questions the ability of the Yankees. Like all clubs that have won several pennants in a row, the Yanks possibly took too many things for granted at the start of the season. A slow start is the handicap the club is working under in the stretch.

In a sense the Yanks might be classed as a careless club. No doubt members of the team can look back over the season's play and pick out a half dozen or more games that might have been saved by more careful play. An undeserved defeat now and then meant nothing to the Yanks as they figured they could go out and win when necessary. A club can't always do it.

Big Year for Ruth
Babe Ruth, the star of the club, is having another big year. He has done more than simply clutch home runs, excelling in all departments of play. His great work has tilted the club over many a slump.

A club with a batting star like Ruth, a club possessing a tremendous punch at the bat, a good defense, and a pitching staff of remarkable ability, is an aggregation that must be feared. Had the five-star American League race wouldn't staff of the Yankees run true to form have been such a hectic struggle from start to finish.

The Yanks of September are 25 per cent. better than at any other time during the 1924 race. Incidentally good enough to win over any National League club that opposes them, provided the Yanks win.

OTHERS AT THIRD

DUGAN, NEW YORK.—Bats and throws right handed. Outstanding figure at third last season, who has not quite played up to form. Injuries have handicapped his work. Has done his best during the closing stages. Remarkable fielder and dangerous batter.

BLUEGE, WASHINGTON.—Bats and throws right handed. Great defensive ball player who makes the hard chances look easy. Rated just the average hitter, but is dangerous in a pinch and gets distance to his drives when he meets the ball. Will be a star with more experience.

GROH, NEW YORK.—Bats and throws right handed. Veteran star, brilliant player, who is beginning to show the wear and tear of years of service. Rises to greatest heights in the crisis. Played remarkable ball in world series last fall, although not physically fit to give his best.

STOCK, BROOKLYN.—Bats and throws right handed. Veteran, discarded by several National League clubs, having one of his best years. His experience has helped to steady the Brooklyn infield, in some ways a rather makeshift combination for a pennant contender.

RATIN—Rugan is entitled to the premier honors in the American League. There is little to choose between Groh and Traynor. Both have slumped in their batting. Dugan gets the decision over his competitors.

MURPHY TO LEAVE DANVILLE WEDNESDAY

Herb Murphy owner and manager of the Danville baseball team expects to leave this city with his family next Wednesday for Thomasville, Ga., where he will spend the winter. Mr. Murphy stated last night in answer to an inquiry that no negotiations for the sale or partial sale of the club had been in progress and that while he has received several inquiries from different sources, it could not be said that a definite offer has yet been made to buy any interest in the club. Mr. Murphy said that the end of the season said that the club was not a profitable one owing largely to a local industrial conditions that curtailed attendance at the home games materially. It was then that he announced that he was prepared to sell part interest in the club or if necessary the whole franchise, the lease on the ball park, players' contracts and other assets which he holds. Mr. Murphy shows no disposition to press negotiations until next spring.

DANVILLE HIGH DEFEATS LIGHTER CHATHAM TEAM

The Danville High school football team opened its season auspiciously yesterday afternoon at 4 by winning its opening game, defeating the Chatham High school eleven 25 to 0, scoring a touchdown in each of the four eight-minute quarters. The soggy slippery condition of the Stone-wall Jackson park gridiron precluded any really fast football or individual running-plays and forced the contestants to resort for the most part to massed plays into the line. One touchdown was made in each quarter, while the home team's goal-line was not in serious danger of being crossed.

K. Farley made two touchdowns, and Blair, another half-back, two. Rogers and Taylor, Danville back-field men, pulled off some good runs, considering ground conditions. On the whole, the game was good practice, even under unfavorable running conditions. It was witnessed by a small crowd owing to the weather.

The local team has been coached by Messrs. Wilson and Keck and show promise of fine team-play development. Having the heavier line, Danville advanced the ball more easily although they met with stubborn resistance from their lighter opponents.

Mr. Fain (W. & L.) was referee; Mr. Bork, Temple umpire, and Mr. Richardson, Penn. head line judge.

The local High will put on a more strenuous game next Saturday when they meet the Reidsville, N. C. High.

MANY FOOTBALL GAMES IN EAST SCHEDULED FOR DAY

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The third of the pique will rival the crack of the base-hit tomorrow when the 1924 college football season gets underway.

Makeshift-wearers in all parts of the country, representing approximately 300 colleges and universities, will line up for the opening battles of what promises to be on of the most interesting seasons on record.

All the frays that have become traditional to the gridiron again will attract their full share of attention this fall while many important additions to the calendar of rivalry, together with an impressive list of inter-sectional contests, are expected to touchdown all season, missed this one and the hopes of Pennsylvania's supporters waned. Penn's comeback, great as it was, had fallen one point short, they were saying.

Michigan elected to receive the kickoff and immediately began to stall for time. A penalty for delaying the game forced them to punt. Dick Marshall, Penn's safety man, roared the kick and while an electrified throng wondered whether it was dreaming and a desperate interference moved down Michigan men right and left, Marshall ran for the winning touchdown.

From both sides of the field the stands poured their crowds. They crashed in mid-field. For an hour the mob milled madly, but finally the field was cleared and the remaining 15 seconds were played, the game ending Michigan 21, Pennsylvania 27.

Twenty-one points behind and the game half gone, yet Penn pulled through, but the crowd of gridiron determination—the will to win. You are only licked if you think you are.

WASHINGTON'S PENNANT HOPES RECEIVE SEVERE JOLT-JOHNSON INJURED

(By The Associated Press.)

BOSTON, Sept. 26.—Washington's pennant aspirations received a rude jolt today when Ferguson pitched Boston to a 2 to 1 victory over the Senators in the first of four games to be played here.

New York's victory while Washington lost reduced the Senators' lead in the pennant race to one full game. Another blow to Washington hopes came when Walter Johnson, the club's pitching ace, was hit on the left elbow by a pitched ball in the fifth inning apparently severely injured. Marberry pitched the eighth inning against Boston. After thirteen consecutive victories, Johnson figured as losing pitcher.

In the fourth inning Veatch, with one out, scratched a hit through Stanley Harris and went to third when Boone singled sharply to center. Joe Harris' Texas leaguer to short center brought the score. Ezzell forced Harris, but Lee's long single to left center left Boone in with what proved to be the winning run.

Washington's single came in the eighth. Ruel opened with a single beyond shortstop. Liebold batted for Johnson and batted for Ruel. Ferguson whose throw to Lee forced Ruel. The latter prevented Lee from making a throw to first. Wade Lester in as a pinch hitter for McNeely and his double to left center let Liebold score from first.

Stan Harris and Rice were infield outs however and the Washington inning was over.

There were two other occasions when the Senators had chances to satisfy the crowd of 12,000 which called repeatedly for a Washington victory. In the second with one out Judge doubled and Bluege got an infield single, but Peckinpaugh was called out on strikes and Ferguson threw out Ruel. Again in the ninth with two out Bluege singled and went to third on Peckinpaugh's single to right. Peck was caught between second and first for the final out.

Veatch made two hits off Johnson and one off Marberry after hitting safely in 31 consecutive games. Sam Rice went hitless today.

YANKS FIND FLAW IN ATHLETICS' DEFENSE

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 26.—Their backs to the wall and fighting desperately to overtake the Washington Senators, New York pounded its way to a 7 to 1 victory when Philadelphia's defense weakened in the fifth inning today.

For four innings, "Texas" Gray baffled the Yanks' attempts to break through his delivery and was retiring them in order on easy pop-ups and grounders. But Pennock was sailing along just as smoothly and though the Athletics managed to get men on base in each of the first three innings, they were unable to hit in the pinches.

The first break in the hurling duel came in the fifth inning and the visitors quick to take advantage of it, followed with some solid clouting that clinched the game.

The turn in the Yankee fortunes came when Dykes and Miller collided in short right field in a chase for Pennock's pop fly. The ball fell between them and before it could be recovered the New York southpaw was on second. Witt followed with a grounder to second that Dykes fumbled in his anxiety and men were on first and third with only one out.

Dugan's two bagger brought Pennock home and Witt pulled up at third. Ruth, then was purposely passed, filling the bases, but Pipp blasted a single through the drawn-in infield that sent two more runners across the plate and the fourth and fifth runs of the inning counted on Meusel's single and Ward's grounder that forced Meusel at second.

The locals' lone score was made in the sixth by Black-Hitter Welch who singled to center to start the round. Hale followed with another single but was thrown out at second when he tried to take advantage of Witt's momentary fumble. Welch crossed the plate on Lamar's single through Ward but the rally met a sudden quietus when the next two batters went out on easy chances.

Burns, Heimach, Harris and Hasty were paraded to the pitcher's box by Manager Mack after the fifth inning, the latter finishing the game.

Heimach was solved for two runs in the seventh inning, one of which may prove costly to the Yankee cause.

Joe Dugan, who had opened the inning with a single, raced to third when Simmons fumbled Pipp's single and when he slid into third, wrenching his left knee so severely that he was temporarily knocked out. McNally was substituted and later crossed the plate on Meusel's clout to center.

SOUTHERN FOOTBALL TO OPEN GENERALLY TODAY

ATLANTA, Sept. 26.—With base ball lingering in the grip of football, the gridiron season claims its place in the sun, regardless of weather conditions, throughout the South tomorrow.

With few exceptions, all the members of the Southern Conference and S. A. A. will play tomorrow. A scant four or five early birds gobbled up football worms last Saturday, but the roar of the opening runs tomorrow will be heard around the football world.

The schedule bring together no ancient rivals, in the true sense of the term. The big fellows are not looking for very stern opposition this early in the game, and the little chaps are furnishing the competitive status with a hope for a football miracle that will make a season for them and possibly break it for their more or less haughty and favored opponents.

Many of the games tomorrow are as traditional as the Thanksgiving events in that for years certain Southern colleges have always started the ball rolling against each other. Some have roamed far afield to line up opening games.

ANSWER—No. Five yards penalty.

QUESTION—If a team has the ball on the side of the field, right against the sideline, an attempt to make a place kick from this angle, it is obvious that the kicker and holder of the ball will be out of bounds. Is this permissible?

ANSWER—Yes, under 12 section 1.

QUESTION—A punt strikes a player of the punting side. May it then be recovered by members of the punting side?

ANSWER—No. A punt ball may be recovered in this case because of the rule which states that no player of the kicking side may touch the ball after it has crossed the line of scrimmage until after it touches an opponent. If a punt strikes the ball into his own line, it is not over the line of scrimmage, then it is common property.

Twelve Virginia Games Today

(By The Associated Press.)

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 26.—Tomorrow's football menu for Virginia fans will be a home-grown affair. The schedule makers offer twelve Virginia teams, scheduled on Virginia grounds and those who love the King of College sports may take their pick.

The flying cadets of V. M. I. will engage in their second game of the year while nine other college crews will see action for the first time in their initial games of the present season. Other teams included in the list are the Newport News apprentice boys and the Norfolk freshmen.

Unhindered from their 22 to 0 victory of this week over Wofford, of South Carolina, V. M. I. will entertain Emory and Henry at Lexington with the odds favoring them to win their second game.

The Hampton Sidney Tigers will journey to Charlottesville to engage the Virginia Cavaliers.

At Blacksburg, V. P. I. will battle the University of Richmond Spiders. Washington and Lee and Roanoke will meet at Lexington.

In Ashland Randolph Mason will play host to the Newport News apprentice school.

In their opening contest William and Mary's Indians will attempt to send the Norfolk freshmen back home in defeat.

The following games are scheduled for tomorrow:

At Charlottesville, Virginia vs. Hampton Sidney.

At Blacksburg, V. P. I. vs. University of Richmond.

At Lexington, Washington and Lee vs. Roanoke.

At Ashland, Randolph-Mason vs. Apprentice School.

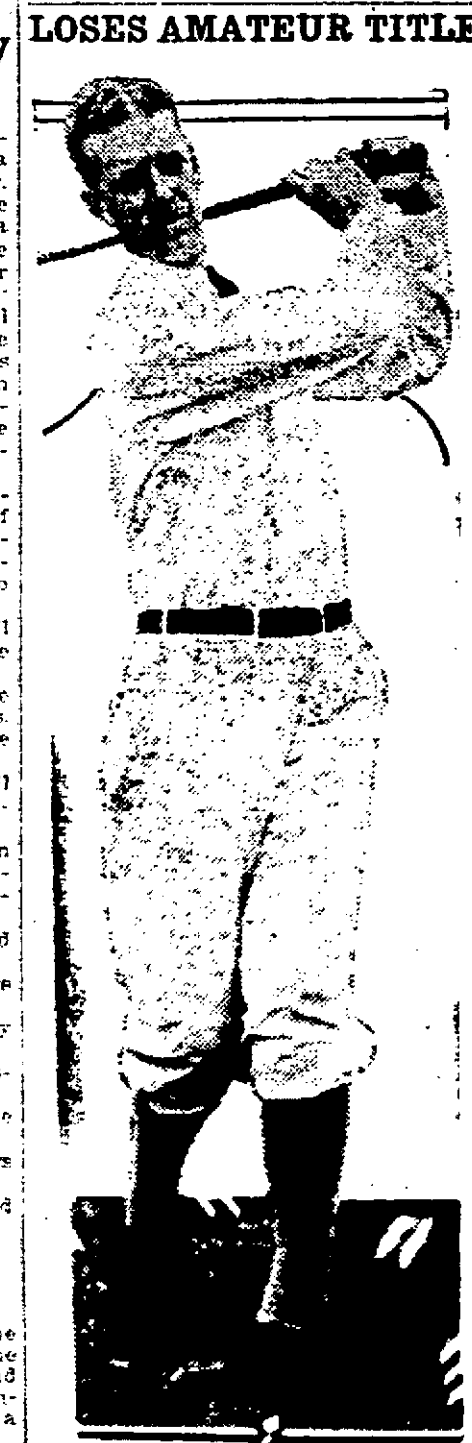

At Williamsburg, William and Mary vs. Norfolk freshmen.

COLTS ARE DEFEATED

(By The Associated Press.)

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 26.—The Waterbury Braves, Eastern league champions, defeated the Richmond Colts, Virginia league pennant winners, 5 to 1, in the first game of a three-game series here today.

Once they were brought home on strings, but it is just now.

Michigan came to Philadelphia in 1912 with a formation the Pennsylvania scouts had never seen. Before it we were helpless. With it Michigan put us to rout. Throughout the first half the Wolverines smashed for repeated gains and, when the intermission brought a halt, the score stood 21 to 0.

Under the circumstances a thoroughly cowed Penn team might have been expected to reappear on the field for the second half. But it was anything but that. Between halves the Penn coaches outlined a defense for the Michigan formation. And, hope revived, the men of Penn returned to the battle keyed to a fighting frenzy.

We scored once. We scored twice. And with only two minutes left to play, the Red and Blue scored its third touchdown. But Chester Mings, who had kicked every goal from

Everyman's Investments

By GEORGE T. HUGHES

SEVENTY-FIFTH ARTICLE

Building and Loan Associations. In two preceding articles I have discussed the principle upon which building and loan associations operate. Probably there is no better medium for the wage earner or the small salaried man who desires to adopt some plan of systematic saving. Most of us require not only an incentive but some form of compulsion before we will regularly set aside part of our income and the building and loan provides just this.

It is, however, not the only form of thrift to be recommended. Insurance is very important and while I do not profess to be an expert on insurance problems I am convinced that whenever possible everyone should carry a certain amount of life insurance. Supposing, however, that you already have insurance in adequate amount and have adopted the building and loan plan either for savings or for prospective home-owning, you should next consider some form of cash reserve for emergency purposes. For most people the savings bank best supplies this need. Funds so deposited are always immediately available. It is also wise, if your means warrant, to have a checking account in a commercial bank. It raises one's self respect to pay one's bills by check and it adds to one's standing in a community. If the balance you carry is small, many banks make a service charge but the accommodation is worth the cost.

When one comes to consider investment securities first acquisitions should be bonds of the very highest grade. I do not mean necessarily Liberty bonds although even at present high prices these are desirable, but bonds of the strongest railroads, utilities and industrial corporations and wealthy individuals keep a certain proportion of these funds in these high-grade securities and the small investor may well follow their example. It is only when you have laid this solid foundation that you are ready to consider the higher yielding securities in bonds or preferred stocks. If everyone would follow this simple schedule the days of the unscrupulous promoter would be numbered for he finds his victim and disposes of his wares not to men of means but to those who can least afford to take the desperate chances which buying of promotion stocks involves.

(Mr. Hughes' seventy-sixth article will appear in The Bee next Monday.)

Irregular Price Movements Feature

(By The Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Stock and bond prices moved irregularly higher in this week's trading with business on an increased scale. Easy money rates, favorable trade news and the usual crop of merger and dividend rumors provided the ground work on which the advance was based but inconstant profit taking brought about many periods of irregularity. Specialties continued to record the largest gains, although substantial progress was made by a series of basic business issues in the public utility, food, motor and low and medium priced railroad shares. Standard rails and industrials moved, for the most part, within rather narrow limits. This was probably due to disposition on the part of some of the traders to await further indications of the drift of political sentiment.

Carloadings for the week ended September 19, which latest figures are available, exceeded the million mark, which were the largest for any corresponding week in his year and came within 35,000 of the record for all time established in the fall of last year. One of the important items in this report was the substantial increase in loadings of general merchandise. This, together with the successful manner in which many important systems scaled down their expenses in August by showing increases in net income, despite reductions in gross, was an important factor in the accumulation of the railroad shares. Most of the southern and southwestern rails established new 1924 peak prices.

Some irregularity took place in the steel shares, due to the confusion incidental to the abolition of the "Pittsburgh plus" price plan but encouragement was derived from the fact that operations of the United States Steel Corporation had increased from 60 to 65 per cent. of capacity. Oil stocks failed to derive much benefit from an increase in certain grades of Eastern and foreign crudes and a further reduction in crude production.

Motors were helped by reports of increased car sales by some of the leading companies. Rubber and motor accessories advanced in sympathy.

The spirited bidding for public utilities reflected higher earnings and forthcoming amalgamations, with local gas shares aided by reports of an early termination of rate litigation. In the preliminary proceedings of which the companies have been successful.

Pools were more active but public participation continued to be small in volume although some commission houses reported an increased investment demand for high grade rails and public utilities.

MORNING STOCK LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—Have you thought of and given full recognition to our changed agricultural situation? Do you appreciate the new wealth created this year? Do you realize that not since war days has the rest of the world found it imperative to look to us for their bread staples? This is a situation brought about naturally without experimental legislation and without artificial means.

Think what it means to our railroads. Think of the purchasing power of our agricultural sections. Small wonder we are optimistic in viewing the future.

Dun's review stresses the influence of the political campaign upon mercantile business. Politics, the doubtful influence at the moment, I believe this doubt will disappear as we approach election day.

MORNING GRAIN LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon.)

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Three weeks ago Brownhall estimated importers requirements of wheat at 744,000,000. Yesterday seaboard authority thinks requirements will be 800,000,000. Private cable from Rotterdam estimates Germany's requirements at 72,000,000 or more than the total United States crop.

The way foreigners buy the futures of wheat and gives much color to those estimates.

MORNING COTTON LETTER.

(Thomson & McKinnon.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—It was still raining in Georgia and Alabama last night. Fair weather prevailed over balance of belt.

Forecast: Showers in all cotton states except Oklahoma. Colder weather predicted for western belt.

Nothing said about frost. Prices strong in Worth street with good business but much unsettlement over unexpected advance in cotton.

Journal of Commerce reports Mississippi crop as holding its own. Farmers selling freely. Louisiana better than last month. Alabama unfavorable in northern part. Balance of states still in doubt.

The advance in cotton has been too rapid and a sharp reaction at any time would not be surprising.

"ONE EXCITING NIGHT"

Tempestuous lovers, one guided by his heart, one by Greed, seek a girl, young,
sweetly innocent.
Fate hurls them into a House of Mystery as their trysting place.
Peering eyes and creeping figures,
stealthy steps,
all about—Comes the storm, then the Calm—and Love wins.
